

Dr. Christian Forstner is a distinguished scientist and consultant with over 30 years of experience in supporting organizations to enhance their competitive advantage and sustainable success. After extensive academic work in international research teams and many years in a very large, complex, and international industrial environment, Christian discovered the simple KAIZUNO approach like a natural law some 20 years ago. His discovery was based on the fundamental insight that complex systems can be most effectively understood, managed, and optimized with simple approaches.

Having spent many years in leadership roles at Siemens, Christian founded CF YOUR ADVANTAGE: <https://cfyouradvantage.com/> to fully pursue his passion for driving organizational excellence. His sector experience includes automotive, energy, industry, banking, healthcare, national authorities, transport and logistics, telecommunications, security, defense, oil and gas, food, research, social welfare work, and education. His work has taken him across Europe, Turkey, China, India, Japan, Africa, USA, and many Arab nations, providing him with a rich understanding of diverse cultural and organizational contexts.

As an excellence consultant, Christian has supported, assessed, and developed numerous organizations of any size and nature worldwide, offering expertise in strategy, leadership, process and risk management, sustainability, and many other fields of competence. Christian is the co-founder of Excellence Talks, the world's largest community for business excellence.
